Indoor Golf Alliance Announces the Main Speakers for the First Indoor Golf Leadership Luncheon

PGA Show Jan 22, 2026 – 11:00am to 1:00pm
Room #330

You will not want to miss the very first Indoor Golf Industry Leadership luncheon, Thursday, January 22, at the PGA Show. It is an opportunity to hear the top leaders in the industry, to network with other Indoor Golf companies and to share your thoughts and ideas on how to shape the future of Indoor Golf.

Wil Bangerter
CEO, The Back Nine Golf

Ken Reynolds
CEO, aboutGOLF Intl

TJ Schier
CEO, SmashSwing

Wil Bangerter, CEO, The Back Nine Golf

The Back Nine Golf is the fastest growing Indoor Golf Facility Franchise company in the World. Wil is an attorney, husband and father of 4 and founder of The Back Nine Golf. He started with one location in St George, UT, and now has the fastest growing Indoor Golf Facility Franchise company in the World with over 340 locations.

"Once a golfer has the data there is no going back" Wil Bangerter

Ken Reynolds, CEO of aboutGOLF

Ken has been part of the team for over 10 years. Before joining the corporate side, he launched his first indoor golf center in 2003, which included 13 remote locations totaling 54 aboutGOLF Simulators, and managed an exclusive Northeast aG distributorship. This background, as both a dealer and facility operator, provides Ken with valuable, practical insight into the indoor golf industry. His experience spans from custom residential setups to commercial facilities and dealer management.

TJ Schier, CEO / Founder SmashSwing

TJ is the founder and CEO of a new golf-entertainment technology, SmashSwing Immersive, that hit the market in 2025. Prior to launching SmashSwing, he was the Chief Operating Officer of BigShots Golf owned by ClubCorp/Invited. BigShots Golf was the second largest player in the golf-entertainment venue space and grew quickly under his watch before being sold to the largest competitor in the space.
